COME & MEET THE CANDIDATES

The Hillandale Citizens Association is sponsoring two Election 2002 Candidate Forums to provide the opportunity for residents to question and meet those running for public office this fall. Everyone is invited. Please come, show your support for the community, ask questions and participate in these forums.

Montgomery County Board of Education

September 4, 7:30 p.m. at Cresthaven

The quality of our schools is important to the health of our community. Whether you have children in Montgomery County Schools or not, the policies, budgets and actions of the School Board impact your neighborhood and local area.

All primary candidates for the various Board of Education contests have been invited to meet local residents and offer their positions on education issues. Following a brief statement from each candidate, audience questions will be taken. A short reception with the opportunity for you to speak informally with the candidates will follow.

Since the Montgomery County primary ballots (Democratic, Republican and Non-Affiliated) will have these Board of Education contests, this forum is significant for all voters who intend to cast their ballot on Primary Election Day.

The forum will be held Wednesday, September 4, at Cresthaven Elementary School, 1234 Cresthaven Drive, at 7:30 p.m.

Montgomery County Council

September 25, 8:00 p.m. at CHI

The winners of the District 5 and At-Large County Council Primary Elections will participate in a County Council Candidate Forum at the CHI Center on Wednesday, September 25, at 8 p.m. Neighboring associations--Burnt Mills Hills, Burnt Mills and Oakview--are participating with HCA in this local event.

County Council's actions direct transportation projects, zoning laws, county services, budgets and local development. Come hear the positions of the candidates, ask questions and meet the politicians who will be on the ballot in November's General Election.

HCA COMMITTEE OPENINGS

SCHOOL LIAISON: Keep the HCA informed on the issues related to the Cresthaven, Key, and Springbrook.
